In deciding the Stratton divorce case, Judge Mills severely criticised and condemned the action of the Hartford Day Spring, the Decatur Republican and the Paw Paw Courier, in publishing comments on the merits of the case prior to its decision by the court, intimating very forcibly that, had he not been satisfied such publication was made without wrong intent, they would be proceeded against for contempt of court.

Their kindness will not soon be forgotten.

A Pleasant Gathering.

The ten cent tea and social at the Baptist church Tuesday evening, October 28, was in every way a success. A short programme of music and recitations followed the supper. Among the guests were Mrs. Renwick of Pontiac, Mrs. Hammond of Jackson, and Mrs. Rood of St. Joseph, daughters of Mrs. T. A. Granger. A fourth daughter, Mrs. Simonds of Duluth, was also visiting her mother, but in feeble health. Mrs. Renwick and Mrs. Rood sang some beautiful selections, adding much to the pleasure of all. The next entertainment will be a parlor concert on Tuesday evening, Nov. 11. Mrs. Chappell and Miss Jennie Fish have charge of the programme, so a musical treat is in store. Admission 10 cents.

The Paw Paw Mass Meeting.

For the first time during the entire campaign the republicans of this county on Monday last had a fair day for a mass-meeting, and the result was a brilliant success, the crowd being simply immense. By the middle of the forenoon delegations began pouring in from every direction, and soon the streets were thronged so as to be almost impassable. The parade, which took place at noon, was an imposing spectacle. It consisted almost wholly of mounted men, of whom there were in line by actual count 660, bearing flags and banners of various descriptions. There were three elegant wagon loads of girls, dressed in uniforms representing the different states, one from Porter, one from Decatur and a load of colored ladies from Arlington, representing the southern states, carrying a motto inscribed "We owe our freedom to the republican party." The finest demonstration was the combined delegation of Porter, Antwerp, and Little Prairie Rode, but large delegations came from Gobles, Waverly, Lawrence, Decatur, Hamilton, Hartford, and other localities.

In the afternoon Hon. Solon Chase addressed an immense audience at the rink, and an overflow meeting was addressed from the balcony of the Dyckman House by O. D. Beebe, Esq., of Kalamazoo. Speeches were made in the evening, at the rink, by Judge Chatterton of Ingham county, and M. C. Burch, Esq., of Grand Rapids. The speakers were all very entertaining in their remarks, and, without doubt, made votes for the republican cause. The various business houses of the village and some private residences were elegantly decorated, and brilliantly illuminated in the evening. The torchlight procession in the evening and the display of fireworks presented a beautiful spectacle indeed. On the whole the meeting was one of which republicans are proud. About the only disagreeable feature of the occasion was that it began to rain in the evening, and our visitors had to return home in the storm.

Who Takes the Cake?

Blaine or Cleveland?

It Looks Like Blaine.

The Very Latest.

The latest dispatches from New York received here Friday morning, state that "official returns from Albany county reduce republican plurality by 328, which now leaves it at 640 with 12 districts to hear from."

The democrats concede that Michigan has chosen republican electors, and that Alger and the whole republican state ticket are elected. The fusionists claim the legislature by a small majority, but this is not conceded by the republicans. The congressional delegation will probably stand the same as last year, five republicans and six democrats.

Indiana and Virginia are still in doubt and claimed by both parties. The chances, however, in both of these states are in favor of the democrats. New Jersey and Connecticut are both democratic.

New York, Friday morning, 9 a. m.

Official vote of 56 counties give Blaine plurality of 59,384, Cleveland plurality of 69,207. Four counties not in. Estimating these, net plurality for Cleveland will be 831.

The scenes following the recent election are very suggestive of 1876. Both sides have claimed a victory ever since the polls were closed, and both republican and democratic papers have announced the result as a success for their respective parties, under flaming headlines. It is evident that one side or the other will have to take back what they have said. Let us hope, in any event, that the election will be decided by the people, and that the country will not be subjected to the long, harassing suspense of eight years ago.

The republicans have made large congressional gains, but not enough to regain control of the House. The Senate will remain under the control of the republicans, so that whatever may be the final outcome of the election, the brigadiers and free-traders will not have full swing in the councils of the nation, for at least two years to come.

Detroit, Mich., Friday, 11 a. m.

Impossible to say who has New York. Both parties claim it. Must wait official count.

PHILIP T. VAN ZILE,
Chairman State Cent. Com.

Election Notes.

No fusionists need apply.

We had the traditional stormy day.

They say Chandler had a walkaway.

Burrows owes his salvation to Van Buren county.

Paw Paw polled 722 votes, the largest vote ever cast in the town.

Van Buren is the banner republican county of the district, as usual.

Some fusionist voted a written order from one of his neighbors, instead of his ticket.

Every town in the county, except Pine Grove, carried by the republicans, and every candidate elected.

Paw Paw republicans voted pretty straight. There were 253 straight republican, 227 straight fusion, and 27 straight prohibition votes.

On one-half of the greenback tickets it read William Shakespeare instead of William Shakespeare. The printing was done at the Herald office.

One hundred and three republican meetings were held in this county during the campaign, and a large quantity of republican literature circulated. The large republican vote shows the result of this work. Had the same effort been put forth in each of the other counties of the district, Mr. Burrows might have had 1500 majority.

List of Letters

Remaining uncalled for in the Post Office at Paw Paw, Mich., for the week ending Nov. 5th: Wallace Chase, Mrs. Della Carpenter, Mrs. Hattie Howe, Edwin Mulliner, Mrs. Lambson Murphy, Dr. E. A. Peck, Mrs. Jennie Smith, Mr. Isaac Spaulding, Mr. John Ward, V. D. Warren.

The Bangor Mass Meeting.

The republican mass-meeting at Bangor last Friday was a grand success. The afternoon speech was delivered by Hon. Solon Chase of Maine. His logical reasoning, his quaint and original humor fairly captivated his audience. In the evening the crowd was addressed by Col. Heckert, Gov. Blair, Hon. J. C. Burrows, Hon. A. H. Morrison and Judge Hilton. Everybody was pleased with the talk of these gentlemen, except, of course, the bourgeois. The parade in the afternoon was fine. A noticeable feature was a wagon-load of girls representing the states, and bearing in large letters the significant motto, "No democrat need apply." The torchlight procession was also very fine. Nothing occurred to mar the enjoyment of the occasion, except the yelling of a lot of democratic loafers for Cleveland and Yale. Had they realized how contemptible they appeared to respectable men of all parties, perhaps they would have kept their mouths shut, but we doubt it.
